Cook, a 16-year head-coaching veteran in the college ranks, has compiled a 284-168 overall record, with a 165-128 record as head coach of St. Edward's.

After spending three years building the program at SEU, Cook has collected 6 winning seasons in a row. With Cook's best year in 2018-2019 where SEU posted a 30-4 record, won the Heartland Conference and made a Sweet 16 appearance while ending the season as the #4 ranked team in the country.

During his tenure, Cook has coached 13 players to 20 all-conference selections, and he guided four players to all-region honors.

Cook came to St. Edward's from Hudson Valley Community College, where he compiled an overall record of 119-40 (.748) in five seasons. In each of his last two seasons, his Vikings combined for a 62-5 overall record and 32-0 mark in conference play. Cook was named Region III Coach of the Year and BCANY Junior College Coach of the Year in 2007-08. In 2008-2009, the Vikings advanced to the NJCAA Division III national tournament, winning their way to the semifinals.

Cook, the Watervliet, N.Y. native, received his bachelor's degree in American Studies from Skidmore College in 1994, and he completed a master's degree in teaching social studies from Union College in 1996. While at Union, he served as an assistant men's basketball coach from 1994 to 1996. Cook coached basketball at Hudson Falls High School from 1996-04 where he also taught and served as assistant principal.

As a high school player, Cook played four years of varsity basketball at Watervliet High School for New York State and Hudson Valley Hall of Fame coach George Mardigan. Cook was inducted into the Watervliet Hall of Fame in 2009. Cook played four years at Skidmore College and is in the top 10 in scoring at Watervliet and Skidmore, amassing over 1,000 points at each place. In 2012, Cook was inducted into the Capital District Basketball Hall of Fame in Albany, New York.
